

statistical records and other records of recipients, which are:

(1) Required to be maintained by the provisions of a USDA grant or cooperative agreement, or

(2) Otherwise reasonably considered as pertinent to a USDA grant or cooperative agreement.

(b) This subpart does not apply to the records of contractors and subcontractors under grants, subgrants and cooperative agreements. For a requirement to place a provision concerning these records in certain kinds of contracts, see Subpart S of this part.

§ 3015.21 Retention period.

(a) Except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, records shall be kept for 3 years from the starting date specified in § 3015.22.

(b) If any litigation, claim, negotiation, audit or other action involving the records has been started before the end of the 3-year period, the records shall be kept until all issues are resolved, or until the end of the regular 3-year period, whichever is later.

(c) In order to avoid dual record-keeping, awarding agencies may make special arrangements for recipients to keep any records which are continuously needed for joint use. The awarding agency shall request a recipient to transfer records to its custody when the awarding agency decides that the records possess long-term retention value. When the records are transferred to or maintained by the awarding agency the 3-year retention requirement shall not apply to the recipient.

(d) Records for nonexpendable property acquired in whole or in part, with Federal funds shall be retained for three years after its final disposition.

§ 3015.22 Starting date of retention period.

(a) General. The retention period starts from the date of the submission of the final expenditure report or, where USDA grant support is continued or renewed at annual or other intervals, the 3-year retention period for the records of each funding period starts on the day the recipient submits to USDA its annual or final expenditure report for that period. If an expenditure report has been waived, the

3-year retention period starts on the day the report would have been due. Exceptions to this paragraph are contained in paragraphs (b) through (d) of this section.

(b) Equipment records. The 3-year retention period for the equipment records required by Subpart R starts from the date of the equipment's disposition, replacement, or transfer at the direction of the awarding agency.

(c) Records for income transactions after grant or subgrant support. (1) In cases where USDA requires that program income (as defined in Appendix A) be applied to costs incurred after expiration or termination of grant or subgrant support, the 3-year retention period for these cost records starts from the end of the recipient's fiscal year in which the costs are incurred.

(2) Where USDA requires the disposition of copyright royalties or other program income earned after expiration or termination of grant or subgrant support, the 3-year retention period for those income records starts from the end of the recipient's fiscal year in which the income was earned. (See Subpart F, § 3015.44.)

(d) Indirect cost rate proposals, cost allocation plans, etc.—(1) Applicability. This paragraph applies to the following types of documents and their supporting records:

(i) Indirect cost rate computations or proposals;

(ii) Cost allocation plans; and

(iii) Any similar accounting computations of the rate at which a particular group of costs is chargeable (such as computer usage chargeback rates or composite fringe benefit rates).

(2) If submitted for negotiation. If the Federal government requires submission of the proposal; plan, or other computation for negotiation of the rate chargeable for particular costs, then the 3-year retention period for the plan, proposal or other computation and the supporting records starts from the date of such submission.

(3) If not submitted for negotiation. If the Federal government does not require submission of the proposal, plan, or other computation for negotiation of the rate chargeable for particular costs, then the 3-year retention period for the proposal, plan, or other computation and the supporting records starts from the end of the fiscal year covered by such proposal, plan, or other computation.

§ 3015.23 Microfilm.

Copies made by microfilming, photocopying, or similar methods may be substituted for the original records.

§ 3015.24 Access to records.

(a) Records of recipients. USDA and the Comptroller General of the United States, or any of their authorized representatives, shall have the right of access to any books, documents, papers, or other records of the recipient which are pertinent in a specific USDA award in order to make audit, examination, excerpts, and transcripts.

(b) Records of subrecipients. USDA and the Comptroller General of the United States, and the recipient, or any of their authorized representatives, shall have the right of access to any books, documents, papers, or other records of the subrecipient which are pertinent to a specific USDA grant or cooperative agreement, in order to make audit, examination, excerpts, and transcripts.

(c) Expiration of right of access. The rights of access in this section shall not be limited to the required retention period but shall last as long as the records are kept.

§ 3015.25 Restrictions to public access.

Unless required by law, no awarding agency shall impose grant or subgrant conditions which limit public access to records covered by this subpart, except when the awarding agency determines that such records must be kept confidential and would have been excepted from disclosure pursuant to USDA's "Freedom of Information" regulations if the records had belonged to USDA (7 CFR 1.1-1.16).

Subpart E—Waiver of "Single" State Agency Requirements

§ 3015.30 Waiver of "single" State agency requirements.

Section 204 of the Intergovernmental Cooperation Act of 1968 authorizes Federal agencies to waive "single" State agency requirements on request of the Governor or other duly constituted State authorities.

(a) Approval authority. The awarding agency has approval authority for waiver requests, and shall handle them as quickly as feasible. Approval should be given whenever possible.

(b) Refusal procedures. When it is necessary to refuse a request for waiver of the "single" State agency requirements under section 204, the awarding agency shall, through O&F, advise OMB that the request cannot be granted. Such advice should indicate the reasons for the denial of the request. Notification, through O&F, to OMB shall occur prior to informing the State of the refusal.

Subpart F—Grant Related Income

§ 3015.40 Scope.

This subpart contains policies and requirements related to program income and interest and other investment income earned on advances of grant funds. Appendix A defines the term "program income." There are five categories of program income covered in this subpart. Each is treated in a separate section. The categories are:

- (a) General program income;
- (b) Proceeds from sale of real property and from sale of equipment and supplies acquired for use;
- (c) Royalties and other income earned from a copyrighted work;
- (d) Royalties or equivalent income earned from patents or inventions; and
- (e) Income after the period of grant or subgrant support not otherwise treated.

§ 3015.41 General program income.

(a) Applicability. This section applies to "general program income" as defined in Appendix A.

(b) Use. (1) General program income shall be retained by the recipient and used in accordance with one or a combination of the alternatives in paragraphs (c), (d), and (e) of this section, as follows: The alternative in paragraph (c) may always be used by recipients and must be used if neither of the other two alternatives is permitted by the provisions of the grant award. The alternatives in paragraph (d) or (e) of
